Offense/Incident: Attempted Murder

Date/Time: 08-15-2011

Location: 17110 Back Beach Parkway (Waffle House)

---

The Panama City Beach Police Department announces the arrest of Charles Patrick O'Bryan of Panama City Beach, Florida for one count of Attempted Murder and Felony Criminal Mischief. O'Bryan was arrested just after he intentionally drove his 1987 Ford Pick up truck through the Waffle House building in an attempted to run down his wife, Danielle Gibbens, who is employed there as a waitress. After he crashed through the building he exited his vehicle armed with a knife and made threatening statements to Gibbens. Gibbens who was struck by the vehicle and was taken to Gulf Coast Hospital for treatment. Prior to the incident witnesses indicated that O'Bryan called the Waffle House attempting to speak with his wife. When he was not allowed to speak with her, he told a separate employee of the Waffle House that he was coming to run his truck through the building to kill everyone. This case is on-going.
